Wrs. Martha Lloyd Price Files Suit in District Court.

JURORS TO BE WITNESSES

NEW PHASE COMES UP IN THE MORTENSEN CASE.

For seven years before he died, Mrs. Martha Lloyd Price looked after the per-sonal apparel and wants of William J. Lloyd, who passed away May 29, 1903, In consideration of her attentions she claims there was a mutual understanding be-there was a muteal understanding between them that when he died she was to become the sole owner of the house of which he was the possessor. In an action to quiet title to the property, which was begun yesterday in the district court. Mrs. Price says John H. Lioyd, executor of the last will of William J. Lloyd, demands rent of her and her husband, and prays he be restrained from prosecuting a suit as landlord.

After reciting the fact that Lloyd died May 29, and that John H. Lloyd has been appointed executor of the will, Mrs. Price says that she was related to deceased in the following way: "She is his niece by blood and she married her own cousin, son of the deceased, and was his daughter-in-law thereby."

She then tells how she looked after the wants of the uncle and father-in-law, adding:

Witnesses.

Eleven of the twelve men, who tried and convicted Peter Mortensen last year of the murder of James R. Hay will confront the prisoner in court Saturday morning. It will be the first time since the conviction that the surviving jurors have all been together in a court room since that memorable day when they brought in a werdet of guilty of murder in the first degree.

The jurors will be present at the request of District Attorney Deanis C. Elchhor. On that day, if he is able to secure it, Attorney B. J. Stewart, chief counselor for Mortensen, will present an affidavit from a man, in which it is said that he will state that one or more of the jurors, in his presence, made the remark that they had an opinion as regards the guilt or innocence of the defendant, and yet they permitted themselves to be accepted as jurors in the case.

When the case came before Judge Charles W. Morse in the criminal division of the district court Saturday, when, he secured a continuance of one week in which to secure the affidavit, he explained to the court that he did not know whether he could get it or not, but would do the best he could. The purpose of the district attorney in having the eleven surviving jurors present is to combat the contents and allegations in the affidavit by placing the men upon the stand and having them swear that the accusations made against one or more members of their body are false.

The subpoenas were issued yesterday by County Clerk John James at the linsing tion of District Attorney Tichnor. They of their body are false.

The subpoenas were issued yesterday by County Clerk John James at the instigation of District Attorney Eichnor. They were then turned over to Sheriff C. Frank Emery for service. Although one of the Jurors is known to be dead, Michael Kopp, his name is included in the number. It was done for the purpose of accounting for the twelve men and making an official record that he is beyond the Jurisdiction of any and all earthly courts, having been summoned to the eternal bar of justice.

Compromises For Death.

Mrs. May Anna Dawson has effected a compromise with the Consolidated Railway & Power company in the sum of $500 for the killing of her husband, John W. Dawson, on the night of Sept. 17. To protect itself in the future the company stipulated that Mrs. Dawson bring suit for that amount in the district court. The complaint was filed yesterday and a little time afterwards the case was called in Judge Thomas D. Lewis division of the district court. The company confessed judgment and was ordered to pay the amount sued for. Thought there was non-leip for me—at least the doctor said there, was none. I went to see friends at Christmas time and there heard of the good that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery had done for them, and was advised to try it at once. For fear that I might neglect it my friend sent to the village and got a bottle and made me promise that I would take it. I had been getting warse all the time. I took thisteen bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and ten vials of Dr. Pierce's Fleasant Pellets, and used 'All-Healing Salve,' which made a complete cure. It was slow, but sare. I was taking the medicine about eight months.

"I' would say to all who read this; try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery before wasting time and money."

"I have to report that after inspecting several of the nurseries there is found some pear blister mite in some, red spider in others, and peach churi in others, all of which have to be treated before the tree is fit to deliver to anybody. There are also strong indications that some of the nursery stock may be afflicted with woolly aphis on the roots, which will require treatment after trees are dug and before delivery.
